

KALIBER FILMS

Kaliber Films, LLC is a film development and production company, specializing in low to medium budget projects, with maximum marketing appeal. The company was founded in the State of California in July of 2007 by mastermind Laurence N. Kaldor, in response to the steadily spiraling costs of producing quality entertainment fare. The company seeks to produce art yet budget-minded films, based on inherently marketable concepts, in order to ensure a most profitable model. The award-winning Kaliber team has a combined total of over 60 years of experience in the motion picture industry. The formidable individual expertise of the key personnel ranges from film producing to directing to editing.
